

Co-counselling skills day in Edinburgh

Language

English

I would like the company of peers to explore my co-counselling skills.

I am offering to facilitate a day with the intention of learning more about how I co-counsel and where I can refresh, reconsider and celebrate my practice as a co-counsellor.

This is an invitation to come and play.

Event Dates

Saturday, 18 January, 2020 (All day)
